Racing

There was no racing on the weekend due to the RAIN....when will it stop...

A few of us did a TT out to Mt mee on Sunday and thankfully the weather held out for at least that long. We even saw Mick on the way back (presumably heading home from the Zupps ride).

Crestmead

I've attached the 3 round results for the Triple Play series..Looks like Mat Ryan will be the guy to watch in Masters A this year.

New Zealand IM

For those who are interested Cam Brown took out his 9th NZ IM title and Jo Lawn took out the females (again) in record time.

Next Week

HPRW – Next Saturday's race is at Nundah with start times set out below.

Start times are:

6.45am - A Grade 60 mins

6.50am - C Grade 40 mins

7.35am - B Grade 50 mins

On Sunday you have a choice of the Bribie Tri, the off road adventure race or you can come into West End for the Brisbane Road runners 10km or 20km run race. There will be a few of us doing the West End race if you want to come along for a different type of pain to riding a bike....

21 March Mt Cootha Challenge.

As well as the Duttons race on 21 March there is also the Bike Week ride which includes the Mt Cootha ride. There are different distances you can do including the longest being 80km which includes the timed section over Mt Cootha. One of the features this year is that you get to ride through the new tunnel.

For anyone interested in the Battle of the Border race could you please email Mark on his email address above as he is going to co-ordinate our team for this race. We have one more addition in that Dave Dellow is going to race in our kit in Elite A.

Matters of Interest

Where Are you ?

Andrew Purvis...A man is only entitled to use twins as an excuse for so long...where are you mate...we need you on the front of the bunch..if you don't turn up to a race soon I'm just going to set off a fire alarm to see if that sparks you into action..

Train Smart..Race Hard..Earn Respect
